Greg Sauter is the Executive Vice President and Chief Corporate Officer for AECOM (NYSE: ACM), an $8-billion global provider of professional technical and management support services.

AECOM's 45,000 employees — including architects, engineers, designers, planners, scientists and management and construction services professionals — serve clients in more than 150 countries around the world.

In this role, Mr. Sauter provides leadership to enterprise-level support services teams including Safety, Health & Environment (SH&E), Security, Information Technology, Sustainability, and the Enterprise Project Management Office. He oversees the company's Corporate Social Responsibility programs, including the AECOM Community Trust (ACT) and the emerging Technical Practice Networks. He is responsible for the development and advancement of the AECOM global design centers. Mr. Sauter is also a member of the company's Ethics and Compliance Committee, and the Chair of the Enterprise Business Services Board.

As President of Engineers Without Borders USA (EWB-USA), a global non-profit organization, Mr. Sauter chairs the EWB board of directors and guides the Corporate Leadership Council, represents EWB globally, leads the organization's strategic planning, and, serves as an advisor to the group's Executive Director. This term includes Mr. Sauter serving as President Elect in 2013, as well as EWB-USA president during 2014 and past president in 2015.

Mr. Sauter's appointment is the latest milestone in AECOM's corporate citizenship efforts with strategically aligned charitable and philanthropic organizations worldwide.

EWB-USA is a nonprofit humanitarian organization established to support community-driven development programs worldwide through partnerships that design and implement sustainable engineering projects.

A Fortune 500 company, AECOM provides a blend of global reach, local knowledge, innovation, and technical excellence in delivering solutions that create, enhance and sustain the world's built, natural and social environments. For more information, visit www.aecom.com.
